

Boyden Appoints Reid Wang as Partner in Greater China

Top HR executive to steward executive search assignments in telecom, energy and consumer products

SHANGHAI and HONG KONG, JULY 17, 2019 – Boyden, a premier global talent and leadership advisory firm with more than 65 offices in over 40 countries, today announced that Reid Wang has joined the firm as a Partner in Greater China, based in Shanghai.

Wang joins Boyden with over 20 years of strategic human resources experience, focused on organizational and leadership development and change. His experience spans multiple sectors including telecommunications, energy, fast-moving consumer goods and automotive.

“Greater China is a critical region for our firm’s growth and our clients’ global expansion plans,” said William Farrell, Managing Partner of Boyden Greater China. “The appointment of Reid will bring Boyden tremendous additional inroads across various sectors, and his industry leadership will be a great benefit to our clients globally. His extensive network makes him a rich resource for access to executive talent across China, Asia and beyond.”

Wang has held several prominent HR management roles including Head of Human Resources at Nokia and Head of HR Integration Project for an Nokia Shanghai Bell joint venture. He was also Global Chief Human Resources Officer at HCP Packaging Company.

Prior to his career in HR, Wang worked at Boyden, where he drove and coordinated all business development and search activities in China with a focus on North China.

“The decision to come back to Boyden and re-enter the executive search industry was an easy one,” said Wang. “I’m attracted by Boyden’s business model, which combines a robust offering and client-centric service to support client organizations at every stage of growth.”

Wang holds a bachelor’s degree in engineering from Shanghai Institute of Mechanical Engineering, Shanghai, and a bachelor’s of law from Fudan University, Shanghai. He is fluent in English and Mandarin and has a working knowledge of Cantonese.
