BOYDEN GLOBAL EXECUTIVE SEARCH GROWS INDUSTRIAL AND TECHNOLOGY PRACTICES IN DETROIT

DETROIT, September 2, 2014 – Boyden, a global leader in executive search with more than 70 offices in over 40 countries, announced today that Jeff Supina has joined the firm as a Managing Partner and member of the firm's Industrial and Technology Practices in Detroit.

Mr. Supina brings two decades of success placing senior executives in Fortune 500, private equity and high growth organizations in technology, finance, operations, IT services, supply chain, sales, marketing, human resources, and general management roles. In addition to the industrial and technology sectors, his expertise includes financial services and consumer/retail.

"Jeff brings to Boyden a great track record in talent acquisition and executive search. His experience in information technology is a significant addition to our Detroit and Chicago teams," said Richard McCallister, Managing Partner of Boyden Chicago. "His broad experience and Boyden's strong global platform will allow him to better serve his client base, and he will be a valuable partner for collaboration with our offices throughout the US and abroad."

Previously, Mr. Supina managed the executive search practice of a boutique firm in Detroit that specialized in technology and finance. Prior to his career in executive search, Jeff led the recruiting function for one of the Big Five accounting/consulting firms in Detroit. Earlier, he worked in audit and business advisory.

Mr. Supina holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan.
